

Re: Foreign Political Matters - Cuba

conference, though labeled technical and economical, has political implications and if the conference takes place, it will present many problems for the United States and the Western Countries. The opinion among the people in Cuba is that the agenda will probably comprise the following:

- a. demands for breaking down the remnants of colonialism;
- b. better terms of trade;
- c. international price stabilization;
- d. Prime Minister Fidel Castro's demand for a 30 billion dollar loan.

This businessman from Havana stated that the Castro-Lojendio incident has been the most unfortunate affair and not a joking matter. He wrote that looking at it objectively he must say that Castro should never have used television to try and besmirch the embassies of two friendly countries, namely Spain and the United States. Lojendio's reaction was typically Spanish, that it broke all diplomatic procedure, but on the other hand it must be admitted that Prime Minister Fidel Castro's action was not according to protocol. This businessman wrote that Castro was the first to break the rules and Lojendio, the Spanish Ambassador to Cuba, was the first who has had the courage to stand up and oppose Castro in public.

In regard to the third item, namely the schism in the Catholic Church, this Havana businessman wrote that this trouble has been brewing for sometime between the Cuban and Spanish Catholic Prelates. He wrote that the Cuban Catholic Prelates did not seem to realize what is going on or at least did not admit it, while the Spanish Catholic Prelates are quite aware of everything which is going on and what it is leading to. This individual wrote that recently a Basque Nationalist priest attacked the Spanish Government in a public appearance and praised the Cuban revolution. He stated that every Franciscan Monk, mostly Basques, without attacking the Spanish Government are giving their undivided support to the revolution and this they are doing publicly from the pulpit. This Havana businessman stated that the schism today within the Catholic Church has on one side the Jesuits, Capuchins and the Dominicans, that is, practically all the Spanish congregations and on the other side the Cuban Clergy, headed by the Coadjutor Monsignor Evelio Diaz and others. This businessman wrote that the Papal Nuncio, Centoz, is doing his best to keep the family together, but there is doubt he will be able to do so and it will not be surprising if trouble should break out within the Catholic Church, sooner or later, over the Cuban revolution.

SECRETSUBJECT: CUBAN POLITICAL MATTERS - CUBA SITUATION

You may be interested in the following comments which were volunteered to Agent Papich by ~~Alan~~ Dulles on 2-3-60 concerning the captioned matter.

Dulles stated that he saw no immediate solution to the problems caused by Fidel Castro. He advised that in view of the Administration's current policy, "it appears we must permit Castro to hang himself." He then added that certain activities can be promoted to hasten this. He stated that there was danger in waiting for events to develop because "a lot of crockery is being broken in the meantime." (S)(U)

Dulles left the distinct impression that he personally was worried about any waiting period, but he very likely will closely follow Administration policy. (S)(U)

On 2/4/60, [REDACTED] advised SA [REDACTED] that he visited with [REDACTED] on the evening of 2/3/60, at which time [REDACTED] appeared to be quite unhappy about the way things have turned out for Cuba, that is, economic deterioration and Cuba's foreign policy toward the United States.

The informant stated that [REDACTED] is thoroughly disillusioned with FIDEL CASTRO and wants nothing more

The informant stated, however, that [REDACTED]

it was with great reluctance that [REDACTED] accepted.

U.S. Ambassador Bonsal appeared at the U.S. Intelligence Board (USIB) meeting on 2-9-60 for the purpose of making observations on the Cuban situation. His observations were responsive to questions submitted by USIB members. His observations did not appear to add anything to what has already been conjectured by the press and points raised by President Eisenhower in his press conferences. Some of the more significant observations were as follows:

(1) U.S. success in Latin America depends on our policy designed toward the future aims and needs of the various Latin American countries. "If we stick with a (policy) course in defense of U.S. private interests in Latin America, we will eventually lose out."

(2) The Cuban communists are not so much interested in the taking over of the Cuban Government as they are in alienating Castro against the U.S. with the ultimate in this of setting up an "anti-U.S. power only 90 miles off the coast of Florida."

(3) Bonsal feels that communism is an "alien doctrine" as far as most Cubans go; that it is purely a "gambit" accepted by Cubans to acquire social change.

(4) Castro still has friends in other South American countries; however, his stock has gone down and Bonsal feels U.S. is much better off than a year ago.

(5) Barring accidents, Bonsal feels Castro will control for at least a year. Castro is accepted as a "deity" by the masses and this prestige has increased since the lower classes have experienced better conditions. However, those Cubans capable of analyzing the future economic picture become somewhat anti-Castro.

(6) Bonsal does not feel that the Cubans will make the American base in Cuba an issue at least for awhile providing the U.S. does not push its base issue to the fore.

By teletype 2/10/60 New York has furnished results of interview on 2/9/60 with [REDACTED], who claims to be Latin-American expert. [REDACTED] furnished sensational-type story regarding alleged communist and revolutionary activities in Cuba and Panama, including alleged plot planned by high ranking Cuban officials to attack and kill U. S. Ambassador to Cuba Bonser and alleged Soviet scheme to seize Panama Canal Zone. [REDACTED] also claimed Camilo Cienfuegos, former Cuban Army commander missing since October, 1959, is still alive and is in United States in hiding with anti-Castro group at Albany, Georgia. [REDACTED] alleged he spoke with Cienfuegos about 6 weeks ago and also talked with [REDACTED] who is in Miami recuperating from wounds from unidentified cause, about 4 weeks ago. [REDACTED] claimed he could make Cienfuegos available to Bureau provided we would guarantee his whereabouts would not be divulged and he would not be called before any Senate committee.

Bureau files disclose [REDACTED] who has been mixed up with various Latin-American intrigues during recent years.

[REDACTED] is also reported to be connected with various gambling elements. New York plans to reinterview [REDACTED] 2/11/60 and press him for further details, particularly regarding his claim to know whereabouts of Cienfuegos. Regarding supposed presence in United States of Cienfuegos, it is noted that [REDACTED] from whom he is estranged, has been residing in San Francisco and is not known to have been in Miami area in recent months. There have been numerous rumors concerning fate of Cienfuegos and to effect he is still alive and in United States, none of which have been verified.

Despite [REDACTED] dubious background, in view of alleged threat against life of Ambassador Bonser and alleged Soviet conspiracy against Panama Canal Zone, it is felt we should disseminate a summary of the information he furnished to State, CIA, the intelligence branches of the Armed Forces, Immigration and Naturalization Service, and the Department, at the same time calling attention to [REDACTED]

It is noted that we have previously disseminated several reports to these agencies concerning [REDACTED] background.

ACTION:

We are preparing a letter to the above-listed agencies advising of [REDACTED] allegations and at the same time noting his background. [REDACTED]

b7C

We have instructed New York that during future interviews with [REDACTED] any information he volunteers should be accepted, but he should be pinned down as to basis for his allegations and no conditions should be accepted in exchange for his data. We are also telling New York, in view of [REDACTED] they should be most circumspect with him and not encourage any future dealings with him. We are also telling New York that, with regard to allegations involving Cienfuegos, [REDACTED] should be reminded that he is in position of withholding data on an illegal alien in the U. S. and that he, therefore, must accept any possible consequences unless he reveals full details.

Miami and Atlanta Offices were furnished copies of New York teletype 2/10/60 and we are instructing Miami and Atlanta to check with their Cuban sources to see if there is any validity to the Cienfuegos story.

Re WFO airtel to Bureau dated 2/1/60 in matter entitled "FULGENCIO BATISTA, IS - CUBA", which accompanied a letterhead memorandum in the same matter dated 2/1/60. The latter communication reflected that one [REDACTED] had advised that while in Mexico City, Mexico, he had heard that arrangements had been made through unidentified Mexican Government officials to allow former Cuban President FULGENCIO BATISTA to enter and reside in Mexico. b7C

Confidential informant [REDACTED] (protect identity), who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised SA [REDACTED] on 2/9/60 that approximately 6 months previously, an unofficial inquiry had been made at Mexican Immigration in Mexico City by several leading Cuban exiles to determine if permission would be granted for BATISTA to enter Mexico for residence. At this time Mexican Immigration unofficially advised the persons making the inquiry that it was doubtful that BATISTA would receive permission to enter Mexico at that time. According to [REDACTED] no further inquiries have been made on the matter, and no permission has been granted for him to enter Mexico as of 2/9/60. *b2

On February 10, 1960, a confidential source abroad, [REDACTED]

b7D

[REDACTED] of Cuba, advised that it is his conclusion that unity among the Cuban exile groups can only be attained by BATISTA himself. The source emphasized that BATISTA will function efficiently in this connection only if he is granted a visa which will permit him to reside in the United States.

Source made it plain that BATISTA himself recognizes that he can never be the open leader of a movement to unify Cuban exile groups for the purpose of overthrowing the CASTRO government, but said rather that BATISTA would work covertly in the capacity of a senior adviser to bring about the unification.

[redacted] stated he had heard but could not verify information indicating that Soviet submarines were reported off the Cuban coast. He also noted that Communist Chinese technical advisors and military men were in Cuba and were carrying out the agrarian reform program. According to [redacted] the Communist Chinese go to a wealthy Chinese family living in Panama City, Panama, named [redacted] whence they are sent to Cuba. b7C

[redacted] advised that in about March, 1960, the Castro government would openly attack the Catholic Church and seize its property. b7C

According to [redacted] the Soviet setup in Panama is operated through [redacted] indicated that the Soviet program for Panama reportedly involved the seizure of the Government and agitation for the seizure of the Panama Canal. Reportedly, the Soviets will supply the necessary funds and [redacted] of Egypt will furnish the necessary instructions for the seizure and the operation of the Canal. [redacted] furnished the source of the foregoing data concerning Panama as [redacted] of the army in Panama. From this source [redacted] learned that the plan in Panama is that the Canal will be taken over by the Panamanians before May, 1960. b7C

In addition, [redacted] stated that Camilo Cienfuegos, Cuban Army Commander missing since October, 1959, was alive and in hiding in Albany, Georgia, with an anti-Castro group and that [redacted] who had been wounded, was in Miami, Florida, recuperating. [redacted] claimed he had recently seen both of these individuals. According to [redacted] Cienfuegos entered the United States through Everglades, Florida, and upon arrival was slightly injured. [redacted] would not indicate whether Cienfuegos had entered by boat or plane. [redacted] indicated that when the proper time came Cienfuegos would be a military leader in the counterrevolutionary movement. [redacted] stated he would produce Cienfuegos under the conditions that his whereabouts not be disclosed and that, if necessary, he be afforded protection, and that he would not be made available to any Senate committee. No commitments were made to [redacted] b7C

Office of Security

On February 10, 1960, [redacted] advised he did not know Strollo or Bender but advised he was a personal friend of Cataldo. Previous investigation by our New York Office has disclosed that Bender and Cataldo frequent the Belmont Plaza Hotel. b7C

Re: Foreign Political Matters - Cuba

[REDACTED] an American businessman with interests in Cuba, on February 11, 1960, furnished a letter which he had received from a friend in Cuba regarding remarks which were made on the night of February 4, 1960, by Major Ernesto "Che" Guevara, President of the National Bank. These remarks of Guevara dealt with the economy of the country, and the main points of his remarks are as follows:

1. The Cuban Government reserves itself the right to intervene any industry which it considers not functioning well. Free enterprise has shown its failure in Cuba. Therefore, the revolutionary government in order to avoid such economic failures reserves itself the right to intervene any private enterprise which shows indications of failing.

"2. A directed economy, that is an economy guided by government experts has proven to be much more successful than private enterprise in these modern times.

"3. Because of the free enterprise system prevailing in Cuba up to now and under the Batista regime, Cuba has lost in 7 years $450,000,000 in hard currency. Out of that amount $400,000,000 were dilapidated by private enterprise. The other $50,000,000 were dilapidated by the Batista Government in contributions to the development of private enterprises which failed, like Cubanitro.

"4. The revolutionary government is not disposed to continue allowing such capital waste. The revolutionary government is the government of the people and will handle the funds of the people and therefore can only allow the establishment of industries which will benefit the people.

109-12-210-1216
ENCLOSURE

Re: Foreign Political Matters - Cuba

"5. The 'Diario de la Marina' recently argued in favor of an open economy. An open economy is impossible in revolutionary Cuba because hard currency funds would be wasted in imports of items which Cuba can produce easily. An economic policy of free importation would mean the return of a colonial type of economy and subject Cuba to the economic pressure of U.S. - In relation to this same matter Guevara stated that the U.S. is not an open economy because for example they maintain high entrance tariffs that are imposed on imports in order to protect their own industries. Furthermore, the people of Cuba do not want an open economy anymore and the government has to comply with the wish of the people.

"6. If the new economic policies of the revolutionary government cannot be enforced smoothly, they will have to be enforced the hard way. If necessary, the revolutionary government will monopolize all import/export businesses creating an adequate organization, in order to convert itself in the single imported to avoid economic sabotage by private enterprises.

"7. The revolutionary government will continue to intervene the basic Cuban industries because in the last 57 years of republic it has been proven that private capital is incapable of operating these industries.

"8. The concessions granted to Moa Bay Mining Co. and to Nicaro Nickel Co. were dictated in the U.S. and as such accepted 100 per cent by the Batista regime. Guevara said there are proofs of this in documents written at the U.S. Embassy in Cuba and copies of which have been found in government archives. He said, how is it possible that these two investments of more than $150,000,000 employed only 3,000 workers. If such an amount of money would be given to the revolutionary government it would employ 100,000 farmers through the Agrarian Reform Program.

"9. Foreign investments in Cuba have been up to now a good business for the investors and a bad business for Cuba.

Re: Foreign Political Matters - Cuba

"10. One example of U.S. economic pressure is the fact that the Banco Interamericano de Desarrollo will only lend money to Cuba for its economic development if 60 per cent of this money is applied to American investments in Cuba. Therefore, Cuba will not go to this bank because it would sacrifice the economic independence it has acquired after so many years of struggle.

"11. The 40,000,000 pesos contributed by workers as 4 per cent tax towards the industrialization of the country will be invested in industries which will be managed by the workers themselves. The new industries will be of such type that they will not need basic raw materials to work from any supplier abroad like the U.S. or any other country. If this would not be so these industries could only function at the leisure of such suppliers like is the case of Cubanitro which had to be paralyzed momentarily because the U.S. did not want to supply ammonia for its production.

"12. Other industries that will not be developed any more are those subject to economic uncertainties like market fluctuations of demand, sabotage by certain banks in not granting of import licenses in order to scare away buyers, or the opening of letters of credit subject to cash to be deposited in which case it is not really a credit but a payment. The new revolutionary industries cannot be subject to these conditions.

"13. Many private importers are sabotaging the Cuban economy, sometimes by hoarding products, sometimes by flooding the market in order to depress prices of national products and so forth. The Cuban Government cannot allow private importers to speculate thusly and to harm the national economy.

"14. The revolutionary government will work hard on developing the culture of the Cuban people. Imports of books, magazines and industries where books will be manufactured or bound will have the preferential attention of the revolutionary government.

Re: Foreign Political Matters - Cuba

"15. The government will also establish state controlled industries with the workers contributions. These industries will be managed jointly between state and workers because he is convinced that the type of enterprise managed by government and labor will be more successful than enterprises managed by private capital.

"16. Comandante Guevara stated it is very important to maintain a good price for sugar. He said that Cuba should have an even more influential position in the International Sugar Council because of its position as #1 sugar producer in the world and expects to enhance its position in the coming March meeting.

"17. Comandante Guevara said that he expects that both Russian and Cuban Government talks will take place in order to study greater economic and diplomatic relations between the 2 countries.

"18. Comandante Guevara expressed his belief that all industries in Cuba should be centralized under one controlling agency and an intensive technicians training should be given to Cuban citizens in order to eliminate foreign technicians which are now working in such industries.

"19. Banfaic is to be now an INRA (Agrarian Reform) agency and [REDACTED] has resigned. [REDACTED] might become the head of Banfaic but the question is being studied, and not decided yet. b7C

"20. The fact that certain economic classes have been more benefited than others in the enjoyment of life is now dead. The revolutionary government will insure equal enjoyment for everyone because a farmer is just as good or better than a millionaire.

"21. The revolutionary government is studying a plan whereby all unemployed in Cuba shall be registered and consequently transferred to new industries which will need large labor forces.

Re: Foreign Political Matters - Cuba

"22. One of the most successful future industries in Cuba will be that of agricultural fertilizers because the production program of the Agrarian Reform will need substantial quantities of these items.

"23. Up to now the new industries established by INRA are extremely successful and pay laborers highest salaries ever known in Cuba.

"24. A national merchant marine might not be a profitable business for Cuba but it is a vital necessity. The good work done by Comandante Gonzalez ~~Idas~~ head of the Maritime Development Commission, will show in the near future when almost every export product in Cuba and all imports to Cuba will be carried by Cuban flag steamers. The same is the case of Cia Cubana de Aviacion which although economically unsound is necessary for Cuba and will be considerably developed.

"25. The policy of economic austerity now in action in Cuba is not a matter of fortnight, a month or a year. It is here to stay for many years to come probably a minimum of 5. Up to now, due to it, Cuba has saved $100,000,000."

██████████ recontacted the NYO on 2/12/60 and stated that he had just returned from Boston, Mass. where he had contacted a representative of the United Fruit Company, whose identity he did not disclose. ██████████ stated that he has been offered financial assistance from American companies in the U.S. who have interests in Cuba and that their problem now is to create an organization or have a responsible individual accept these funds if any counter-revolutionary activity is to take place in Cuba. ██████████ stated he had not accepted any money from any individual in the U.S. but knows that this money is readily available if and when a counter-revolution is sufficiently organized.

██████████ had no additional information to furnish regarding details which he had furnished on 2/9/60. ██████████ stated that in connection with CAMILO CIENFUEGOS, it is to be noted that he last saw CIENFUEGOS approximately six weeks ago, at which time CIENFUEGOS was in Albany, Georgia. ██████████ stated that he was not sure whether or not CIENFUEGOS was still in the area of Albany, Georgia, but that upon his return to Miami he would attempt to determine the present whereabouts of CIENFUEGOS.

Re: Foreign Political Matters - Cuba

[REDACTED] an American businessman who has interests in Cuba, furnished a copy of a cable which he had received from sources within Cuba. This cable is dated Havana, Cuba, February 11, 1960, and concerns a TV interview of Cepero Bonilla, Minister of Commerce, who was interviewed on February 10, 1960. The main points of interest in this cable regarding Cepero's interview are as follows:

" 1) Answering a question as to whether Cuba will leave the International Sugar Council, Cepero stated that Cuba will stay and that the question of leaving the ISC has not even been considered.

" 2) In relation to the future of the sugar market for Cuba, Cepero said that he is very optimistic. Cuba has sold up to date 65-0/0 of its world quota. This is due, because he, together with the other persons that direct the sugar industry this year use a completely different policy than the one used under the Batista dictatorship. He stated that his policy consists in selling the greatest amount of sugar possible to the world market without letting prices influence sales decisions. Before, under the Batista dictatorship, in order to increase price, sales were restricted; now, sugars are sold at market prices in great volume and the sugar market reaches a higher price level right after these sales.

" 3) The world market prospects this year show the possibility that Cuba will sell more world market sugars this year than the yearly amounts sold in each of the previous ten years. If by March, at the time of the next ISC meeting, Cuba has sold almost all of its world quota, the ISC will have to grant an increase in the Cuban quota. Cepero is convinced that sugar demand will continue strong. To prove that the sugar market prices rise after heavy volume sales at market levels, Cepero mentioned the example of the last sale of 345,000 tons to Russia, which provoked an immediate increase in prices.

" 4) It is almost sure that Cuba will sell all of its world quota under ISC by March of this year. It will be then that the ISC will have to increase the Cuban quota because it will be necessary to satisfy the large amount of sugar demand which might " happen from March until the end of 1960 and Cuba is in a physical position to supply all of this demand.

" 5) It is not convenient for Cuba that the prices of sugar in the world market reach a level of around 40 because this will stimulate sugar production in other countries. The ideal price for Cuba is between 2.80/3.00C per pound. He said that he has talked with ISC delegates of many sugar producing countries where the government subsidizes production as Peru, for example. He knows that at a price of 2.80/3.00C sugar production in such countries is not economically feasible. However, if sugar prices reach 40 these same countries will receive full support from their government to produce as much as possible to sell at these higher levels.

" 6) There are good possibilities of nearby future sales to Eastern Germany, Poland, France, Morocco, Japan, England and other countries. Therefore, it is almost sure that by March 1960 most of the Cuban world sugar quota will be sold.

" 7) All of the sugars that Russia has bought from Cuba are for Russian internal consumption. Russia is very finicky about shipping conditions of the sugars they buy. But Cepero said about this question, that it is being studied now and that he hopes that easier shipping conditions for Russia will be obtained shortly.

" 8) Finally in reference to sugar he stated that he expects to sell this year about 2,500,000 tons. In the world market, he said that of course he and his fellow directors of the sugar policy in Cuba might be mistaken at times but that never before Cuba sold so quickly and so well and never before these sales have avoided private speculation which was possible many times under Batista's dictatorship because of certain leaks Ref: the possibility of large sales to the world market.

" 9) In reference to Russia, Cepero also said that it is very possible that diplomatic and commercial relations will be officially approved between both countries and that it will be convenient for Cuba to sign a long-term agreement with Russia in which sugar will be a capital item because in the next four years sugar consumption in Russia will be doubled.

Re: Foreign Political Matters--Cuba

Regarding the Cuban-United States sugar situation, the following observations were made by Cepero:

"A) In the new project of the sugar act supported by United States domestic producers, United States State Department and the USDA is the right proposed for the United States executive power to reduce sugar quotas from United States suppliers at any time it may estimate convenient to do so. Cepero stated that this is very much like a new "Enmienda Platt" and like the 202-E clause which was approved in 1948 by the United States Congress which stated that economic punishment should be inflicted on American countries which break good commercial relations with the United States. All this is contrary to the Bogota conference in which a clause was approved condemning economic reprisals.

"B) The plan proposed by the United States domestic sugar producers would give the United States executive the power to reduce basic consumption quotas, not percentage participations in increase of consumption. The approval of such a plan would be equivalent to economic aggression on Cuba. Cuba has shown that it can guarantee the United States double or even triple of its present sugar quota to that country. He also said that the United States executive power does not need such facilities to reduce quotas because in case that Cuba could not supply the United States with its sugar quota, the United States executive power can lift entrance restrictions for sugars from other suppliers.

"C) Such action approved by Congress would be completely contrary to the spirit of the Carta De Bogota article #16 and would constitute a black page in the history of the United States, a country which at the same time pretends to obtain special treatment for the expropriations of their private land holdings in Cuba when all Cuban interests who have had land expropriated here have accepted the payment of 4.5-0/0 interest bonds at 20 years redemption.

"D) Cuba is now free and sovereign and all foreign interests are treated just like national interests here. Within principles of international law the United States has no right whatsoever to be granted special treatment re land expropriations."

In addition, Cepero mentioned the following items:

Re: Foreign Political Matters-Cuba

"A) Foodstuffs and medicines have been subject to several price reductions which were only fair. The subsequent hoarding that has happened of such products will be punished strictly by law because it keeps the public from buying these products at the reduced and fair prices.

"B) The revolutionary government is studying at present the question of scarcity of certain items like automotive parts and other products which because of import restrictions are not being brought into Cuba. He expressed his hope that some solution will be found shortly to this problem because the scarcity of such products might be the cause of some unemployment in those industrial sectors.

"C) He also said that the new tax laws affecting the mining industry in Cuba are fair because before these laws were dictated the Moa Bay Mining Company, for example, never paid one cent in taxes to the government.

"D) The government controls the sugar cane bagasse pulp industry in Cuba. The government estimates that this industry has a great future here and will continue supporting the production of paper pulp out of sugar cane in Cuba in order to be able to supply all the news print necessary in Cuba.

"The military tribunals judging the 140 odd persons involved in the Batista-Trujillo conspiracy of last summer dictated yesterday 104 sentences, pardoning the rest:

"For 30 years imprisonment and confiscation of all material wealth were condemned, [REDACTED] and the group that landed in the plane that arrived from Santo Domingo at Trinidad. b7C

"For 20 years and confiscation of all material wealth were sentenced: [REDACTED] and others. b7C

"For 9 years in prison and confiscation of all material wealth were sentenced: [REDACTED] and others. b7C

"New interventions were dictated by the Minister of recuperation of stolen goods among them the following:

"Papelera Damuji, Cia. De Fomento Maritimo, Equipos Comerciales, S.A., Cia. Distribuidora Internacional De Musica, Cia. De Exposicion Central, Cia. Comercial E Industrial Coral, Washmobile De Cuba, S.A.

"Messrs. Kenneth E. Boulding and Ingrav Svernilson, world renowned economists, will begin today a week long session of lectures on economic development in small countries. These gentlemen have been invited by Minister of Finance, Dr. Rufo Lopez Fresquet, and will hold round-tables with government ministers and Cuban economists."

RE: FOREIGN POLITICAL MATTERS - CUBA

FL
A confidential source advised that during the early part of January, 1960, ISIDORE GIBBY NEEDLEMAN traveled to Cuba to assist [redacted] and [redacted] Miami businessmen, in negotiating with the Cuban government for a sugar contract. [redacted] also went to Cuba to help in the negotiations through [redacted] a relative by marriage. b7C

Towards the end of January, 1960, the same source reported that [redacted] expressed concern because he had not received from [redacted] certain samples, as well as information regarding specifications, freight costs, possible adjustment of refining costs, and likelihood of an October delivery. b7C

According to another confidential source, [redacted] subsequently learned that [redacted] had obtained some sugar samples from Cuban government offices and proposed to mail them (to Miami) on 1/27/60. [redacted] had been unable to obtain analyses of the product from government offices. However, [redacted] was advised that the cost to the buyers would be between $1.10 and $1.16, if there were no brokerage charges. He was assured that the deal would be "very definitely" on and that he would be notified at the end of February to come and get the government contract forms. [redacted] was told that an October delivery was possible though no promises could be made. [redacted] furnished this information to [redacted] and reported him as favorably impressed. b7C

Early in February, 1960, the first source learned that the sugar samples had been received in Miami and were found satisfactory.

Information from the above sources appears to indicate that NEEDLEMAN'S trip to Cuba in the early part of January, 1960, was made at the request of and on behalf of [redacted] NEEDLEMAN'S expenses were paid by [redacted] but it is not known whether he received a fee at this time. There are indications b7C that NEEDLEMAN expects to receive a commission from [REDACTED] (or [REDACTED] on each sugar purchase made by these individuals over a period of years. b7C

No information has been received reflecting that NEEDLEMAN had other than personal gain in mind in connection with these negotiations, nor is there any indication that NEEDLEMAN was interested on behalf of the Soviets, or otherwise, in destroying the position of [REDACTED] in the sugar market. b7C

None of these sources has received any information tending to suggest that [REDACTED] or [REDACTED] had any reason, other than personal profit, for being interested in a sugar contract. b7C

It is not known what remuneration may have been offered to [REDACTED] or [REDACTED]. It is probable that the latter's expenses were paid by [REDACTED]. Early in February one of the above sources advised that [REDACTED] told NEEDLEMAN that the telephone bill had come. Inasmuch as she has handled most of the conversations with [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] in Miami and with [REDACTED] in Havana, it is assumed that the toll charges were substantial. NEEDLEMAN told her to "send it in" (possibly to [REDACTED]). b7C

Another confidential source learned that [REDACTED] of the AMTORG TRADING CORPORATION, had expressed interest in NEEDLEMAN'S impressions of Cuba. NEEDLEMAN said the Cubans were wonderful to him. In his opinion the United States would be unable to do anything in Cuba except by sending the Marines. He stated that the United States would find it useless to apply economic sanctions. He pointed out that Czechoslovakia had bought $36,000,000 worth of sugar, (Red) China had bought $50,000,000 and the Soviet Union could buy the rest of the Cuban crop. According to the source, [REDACTED] assured NEEDLEMAN that the Russians could buy. b7C

In connection with this conference, our first source learned from NEEDLEMAN that the possibility of opening a branch of the AMTORG TRADING CORPORATION in Cuba might develop. NEEDLEMAN related that he had had a 3½ hour conference with [REDACTED] on 1/26/60 and had given him the information this individual had requested on the subject. b7C

Dear Dick:

I am enclosing a copy of a memorandum prepared by our representative in Havana, Cuba, in which he has set forth a compilation of data available to him through various well-placed sources in Cuba, supplemented by his personal observations.

This memorandum provides a good insight into current conditions in Cuba. Through a review of developments since Fidel Castro seized power in January, 1959, it demonstrates how Castro, initially accepted by the Cuban people as their liberator, has alienated one responsible group after another. It shows the steady erosion of civil liberties, including freedom of the press, which has taken place under Castro, as well as the rapid deterioration of law and order and of the Cuban economy. It also clearly indicates the deliberate anti-United States program which Castro has fostered and the increasing extent to which his regime is being controlled by procommunist and radical elements.

The picture of present-day Cuba presented here certainly bears out the concern we have shared regarding recent events in that country.

Because of the interest which this material may be to other intelligence agencies, I am forwarding copies of the enclosed memorandum to the Department of State, the Central Intelligence Agency, The Joint Staff, and other intelligence branches of the Armed Forces.

Sincerely,

EDGAR RECEIVED FEB 19 1960

SUBJECT: INTELLIGENCE SURVEY - CUBA

Political Matters - Cuba

By letter 1/26/60, Legat, Havana, has forwarded copies of a memorandum outlining recent developments in Cuba, with emphasis on communist infiltration of Castro regime, irresponsible and pronounced anti-US actions of Castro in foreign policy field, and deteriorating economic and social picture in Cuba under Castro. This memorandum represents a compilation of data received from a variety of well-informed sources and Legat notes that in some instances he has set forth his own personal observations.

The memorandum is not prepared strictly in accordance with our normal dissemination-type memoranda in that sources are not specified for each individual item, although they are indicated in cover letter and although memorandum does generally indicate what sources furnished information under each subheading.

This memorandum has been carefully reviewed and it is felt that it is an excellent resume of current conditions in Cuba and a powerful indictment of the Castro regime as well as an astute analysis of the various forces at play in Cuba. It is believed that this memorandum would be of considerable benefit to other intelligence agencies and that its dissemination would serve to further enhance Bureau's reputation as an important contributor of intelligence data regarding Cuban situation. There is nothing in the memorandum that would preclude its dissemination other than the fact that the Legal Attache has, on occasion, taken some editorial license. However, it is believed that such personal observations on his part are amply justified by supporting facts.

It is, therefore, believed that we should disseminate the Legat's "Intelligence Survey" of 1/26/60 to interested agencies, specifying that this memorandum represents a consensus of data from various well-informed sources.

CUBAN POLITICAL AFFAIRS

A source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised on February 8, 1960 that KUMAR GOSHAL of the "National Guardian", a characterization of which is contained in the Appendix hereto, was the main speaker at the Boston Jewish People's Forum, a characterization of which also is contained in the Appendix hereto, held on January 31, 1960 at Boston, Massachusetts. The source stated that GOSHAL, in his talk, outlined the history of the July 26th Movement in Cuba. He mentioned the confiscation by the Cuban Government of land and property owned by both United States and wealthy Cuban citizens, and the current efforts of the Cuban Government in its Land Reform Program to diversify its agriculture production. MDC

GOSHAL stated that the people of Cuba were behind their present Government because for the first time for many of such people, the Government was accomplishing things for them. It was GOSHAL's statement, in response to a question as to whether the present Cuban Government was Communist, that in another six months it would make no difference what kind of Government existed as the people themselves would be established and in possession of the country.

GOSHAL stated that Cuba was a showcase for the entire Latin American countries. He further stated that whatever happened in Cuba would have particular significance in South America, particularly in Brazil, Chile and Venezuela.

In response to an inquiry as to whether he expected BATISTA to invade Cuba, GOSHAL stated a remote possibility existed that BATISTA might attempt an invasion from the Dominican Republic. He predicted any such attempt would fail, and that if it in fact occurred, the natives of the Dominican Republic would seize the opportunity to arise against TRUJILLO.

GOSHAL stated a conference was scheduled to be held the first two weeks in September, 1960 in Cuba. He said that this conference would be attended by Asiatic, African and some Latin American United Nations delegates. These delegates, he said, would attend the conference prior to proceeding to the United Nations. The nature or purpose of this conference was not commented upon by GOSHAL.

Another source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised on February 11, 1960 that KUMAR GOSHAL intended to be in Cuba at the time the above mentioned conference is held in September, 1960.

BOSTON JEWISH PEOPLE'S FORUM, aka
People's Victory Forum, Jewish People's Forum

A letter received by a source in October, 1955 from the Boston Jewish People's Forum (BJPF) disclosed that the BJPF had been in existence for 18 years; that it had given its platform to the free discussion of any subject, cultural as well as political, and that it continues the liberal traditions of Boston.

The source stated on December 13, 1955 that he had observed a leading figure of the Communist Party, USA, New England District, in attendance at Forum meetings on many occasions, and that the featured speakers have represented or have been affiliated with Communist front organizations.

The Communist Party, USA has been designated by the Attorney General of the United States pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

The source further stated on January 2, 1958 that "The Worker", an East Coast Communist weekly newspaper, had been on sale at Forum meetings.

Another source on December 8, 1958 furnished a copy of a flyer obtained at a meeting of the BJPF on November 30, 1958. This flyer reported that the 1958-1959 season of the BJPF would meet at the Town and Country Club, formerly the Morton Plaza Hall, 156 Wellington Hill Street, Dorchester, Massachusetts.

The flyer noted that "once again the Jewish People's Forum presents its lecture series, open to the public, which will take place on Sunday mornings from 11:00 a.m. to 1:00 p.m." Included among the speakers were: HERBERT APTHEKER and LEWIS M. JOHNSON who were to speak on December 21 and December 28, 1958, respectively.

HERBERT APTHEKER testified on July 14, 1954 in the trial of the United States vs. KUZMA, Et Al for violation of the Smith Act, United States District Court, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, that he was a member of the Communist Party and had been a member of the Communist Party since 1939.

THE NATIONAL GUARDIAN

The "Guide to Subversive Organizations and Publications" prepared and released by the Committee on Un-American Activities, United States House of Representatives, Washington, D. C., revised and published as of January 2, 1957, contains the following information concerning the captioned publication:

"Established by the American Labor Party in 1947 as a 'progressive' weekly. Although it denies having any affiliation with the Communist Party, it has manifested itself from the beginning as a virtual official propaganda arm of Soviet Russia."

(Committee on Un-American Activities, Report, "Trial by Treason: The National Committee to Secure Justice for the Rosenbergs and Morton Sobell", August 25, 1956, p. 12)

The above "Guide to Subversive Organizations and Publications" contains the following information concerning the American Labor Party:

"For years, the Communists have put forth the greatest efforts to capture the entire American Labor Party throughout New York State. They succeeded in capturing the Manhattan and Brooklyn sections of the American Labor Party but outside of New York City they have been unable to win control."

(Special Committee on Un-American Activities, House Report 1311 on the CIO Political Action Committee, March 29, 1944, p. 78.)

"Communist dissimulation extends into the field of political parties forming political front organizations such as the American Labor Party. The Communists are thus enabled to present their candidates for elective office under other than a straight Communist label."

(Internal Security Subcommittee of the Senate

CUBA
Feb. 1, 1960

3) The traitor [REDACTED] protected by the "Black House" of Washington and guarded by the FBI upon orders of the State Department, after having assassinated two Cubans and causing innocent victims among the civilian population of Havana, makes periodic trips to and from the United States with facilities granted only to diplomats; 4) [REDACTED] is at present in the Canal Zone of Panama under a false name and is inspecting and training the mercenaries who, under U.S. jurisdiction, are hastening their plans to attack Cuba; 5) [REDACTED] the watchdog of imperialism daily visits the offices of the State Department for talks with high officials in this U.S. Government department. He is the puppet appointed by the U.S. Government to coordinate the counterrevolutionary plans in the Senate, the House of Representatives, and the U.S.-paid press. b7c

6) As another proof of the obvious U.S. complicity in, and responsibility for, the directing of the international conspiracy against Cuba, we have the revealed fifth column activities of the Franco Embassy in Havana, now made known to the people by Fidel Castro's reading of the famous letter before the television cameras and the radio; 7) the official support given by President Eisenhower to the international U.S. agencies for the slanderous, offensive, and vile campaigns which these instruments of imperialism are waging throughout the world in order to create the conditions which would make it possible at any given moment to unleash "a Guatemala" against the revolution and our people.

8) The fierce persecution by U.S. authorities of Cubans who sympathize with the revolution as opposed to the support and protection granted cynically to the most repulsive assassins of men, women, and children; 9) Evidence that the U.S. Government is directing the imperialist conspiracy against Cuba is the fact that from the U.S. Embassy in Havana notorious refugees from Cuban justice have been sent to the naval base of Caimanera. They were then sent to Florida where they were awaited by FBI agents and officials of the Justice Department; 10) right now the U.S. Government, with unheard-of impudence, is using pressure on certain Latin American governments in order to prevent attendance at the world conference of the underdeveloped nations which has been called by the Cuban revolutionary government for the purpose of (revealing?) the desperate drama of poverty afflicting our brothers of the continent and other nations of the world, where the boot of Yankee imperialism is crushing the desire for freedom of the exploited masses under a system of decadent capitalism.

There is still a lot more to prove conclusively that the U.S. Government impudently advocates the attack upon our revolution so as to destroy the acquisitions made by the people and bring back the (nightmares?) of past crimes, abuses, and the total destruction of our national sovereignty.

Feb. 1, 1960

The men of the revolution, the workers, the peasants, the students, all the Cuban people are aware of the danger threatening our national sovereignty, which seeks to arrest this beautiful work of hope and national recovery which we are building for future generations. Because our people are perfectly aware of what is at stake at this time they are growing more and more united with each day, more combative, more determined to fight, fall, and die so that our revolution, the American revolution, and its program will advance and triumph over all the enemies of social justice who are the enemies of peace and progress in the world.

U.S. Plotting

Havana, Union Radio, in Spanish to Cuba, Jan. 29, 1960, 2330 GMT--E

(Toni Fernandez editorial)

(Summary) Cuba, this new country which has cost so many sacrifices, in blood, death, suffering, and unprecedented heroism, is being cruelly attacked by planes coming from North American territory.

While we Cubans yesterday rendered, in a peaceful and orderly manner, tribute to the memory of our liberator by turning the Moncada military fortress into a school, two mercenary planes made incursions and burned more than 15 million arobas of cane in the Camaguey area and dropped live phosphorus and a bomb, which did not explode, on the town of Puerto Padre.

Such, it seems, is the reply of the United States to the posture in defense of national sovereignty taken by the revolutionary government in reply to Eisenhower's statements, which are clearly threatening and unacceptable for the Cuban people.

The moment the Cuban Government denounced the counterrevolutionary actions of the expelled Falangist ambassador in Havana, certain U.S. official circles, on seeing themselves uncovered,--that is, on seeing that we had uncovered the fascist fifth column which had been introduced into Cuba through Franco's diplomatic office--showed themselves to be more violently opposed than ever to the decisions of the revolutionary Cuban Government. As if to dispel doubts that the U.S. Government had dealings with Lojendio, Washington ordered its ambassador to return to his country, showing in this war its manifest solidarity with the Falangist fifth columnist. Immediately Eisenhower made another statement, which was replied to by President Dorticos Torrado.

CUBA
Feb. 1, 1960

Twenty-four hours later, as if in reply to the posture of the revolutionary Cuban Government, pirate planes left U.S. territory to drop incendiary bombs in Camaguey. The U.S. Senate, which is part of the executive power of the union and therefore of the U.S. Government, added another offense against Cuba by calling in a deserter from the revolutionary armed forces to question him on the situation in our country.

I note these recent events, without mentioning previous events, to prove that the U.S. Government is the only one responsible for the physical, moral and other types of attacks against the national economy, against the rights of our people, with the aim to overthrow the revolutionary government and to implant in Cuba the hateful system of exploitation which for more than 57 years was imposed on our country by Wall Street imperialists.

For all those reasons, I accuse, before America and the world, the U.S. Government of encouraging armed aggression against Cuba. I accuse President Eisenhower of directing a sinister international plot against Cuba, against the revolutionary government, and against the interests of the Cuban people. For all those reasons I accuse the U.S. Government of fomenting and cooperating with an armed aggression against our fatherland in order to install in power a band of "entreguistas" traitors, and bad Cubans who will permit imperialism to continue to exploit our resources at the expense of the hunger and poverty of the Cuban peasants and workers.

For all these reasons, with all the consequences in mind, I accuse the U.S. Government and its President, General Eisenhower, of directing the plan of armed aggressions against Cuba, using the war criminals--who are given refuge and protection in his country--and Trujillo's mercenaries, to launch them on invasions prepared in U.S. territory with U.S. weapons against the Cuban people, thereby flagrantly violating the most basic principles of international agreements.

I accuse the U.S. Government of all these charges, which are no secret to anyone. It is these facts, and not hypocritical statements by Eisenhower, which demonstrate the U.S. policy of intervention in the internal affairs of other countries.

Sister peoples of Latin America, North American people, peoples of the free world, Cuba, the homeland of Martí--the new Cuba is being attacked by Yankee imperialism. The Cuban people denounce the criminal aggressors, the reactionary forces, and North American imperialists which seem determined to perpetrate in our continent another great crime. Sister peoples of the free world, stand up beside the Cuban revolution, the Cuban people and the Cuban nation, which is fighting the great battle of liberation for the oppressed peoples of America against the wicked monster of a thousand heads, North American imperialism.

CABLE:

GENAR-ROMA

Dear

I had your news with great pleasure.

Concerning the airplanes, we have at the moment available, from the Ministry, some jets "Vampire" - engine Goblin 3. Their main specifications are as follows:

- No. 20 Vampires, single-seater, revisioned, with engine 0 hours, complete with equipment and armament, with ejectable seat -
- No. 7 Vampires, two-seater, complete as above, with the addition of radar equipment for night flights. The engines will be reconditioned to 0 hours.

Besides these, there are other 43 Vampires, single-seater, Goblin 3, in perfect efficiency but with some hours of flight. The 27 airplanes described above may be sold even immediately, provided we have an official declaration that you are in possess of the relative credit, letter of the Bank and so on.

There have been many talks, lots of people have come saying they had the money, but whenever negotiations where over, they all disappeared.

The prices we quote for airplanes FOB Italian Port, tested and therefore packed (the packing is extremely expensive) are as follows:

- | | |
|-----------------------------------|-----------------|
| - No. 20 Vampires, single-seater, | $ 40.000 each |
| - No. 7 Vampires, two-seater, | $ 45.000 each. |

In the above prices a commission for you of 5% is already included. Any addition you might obtain is yours.

We had an engagement with _____ who lives in Avana. He had come to Italy with the Cuban Mission, but we have not heard from him any more.

Therefore the first person who will come to Rome with the money shall have the airplanes.

As for the remaining 43 airplanes "Vampire", single-seater, as they are, their price will be of about $ 32.000 each, complete with armament.

You must realize that only the armaments and the radio equipments cost us about $ 20.000. If you can deal this business rapidly, we can assure you of a very quick delivery too, 60 days at the maximum.

If the destination is Cuba, there will be great difficulties, due to the situation with Fidel Castro, but we shall overcome them, by means of money, of course.

For a destination allowed by our Authorities, I remind you that we can also obtain some G. 91 (Fiat), in force to NATO. Such airplanes are requested by everyone and only exceptionally Genar can obtain from 4 to 6 units. The prices are very high (factory prices) but the important thing with these airplanes is to get them.

Looking forward to hearing from you, I am

Yours sincerely

G. E. N. A. R.

P. S. - Your cable has just been received. Enclosed is the letter you wish to have.

Foreign Political Matters - Cuba

On February 18, 1960, a confidential source who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised that [redacted] who intended to travel to Cuba on February 19, 1960, obtained from Isidore Gibby Needleman a document to be signed by all interested parties providing for the payment by [redacted] Will Rose Bakers Supplies, or Sterling Shortening and Oils, of a commission of ten cents per hundred pounds of sugar delivered to [redacted] during the first two years, and twelve cents thereafter, to be shared equally by [redacted] and Needleman. b7C

On February 24, 1960, another confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, related that [redacted] returned from her trip on February 24, 1960, and reported that no sugar will be available for 1960 and that no negotiations for a contract will be conducted until November. b7C

The source learned that [redacted] met [redacted] in Havana, as well as a man named [redacted] whom [redacted] had brought along to meet her and [redacted] This individual spoke no Spanish. He represented a cooperative group of the largest sugar consumers in the area. According to [redacted] the big problem of this group is "bucking" [redacted] whom she reported to be as powerful as ever. b7C

The source further ascertained that [redacted] and [redacted] returned to Miami on February 20, 1960, when an appointment they had with a Cuban Government official, believed to be named [redacted] (phonetic), was cancelled. [redacted] was to return to Cuba on January 21, 1960, for an appointment on January 22, 1960, but was unable to get away. b7C

[REDACTED] who has furnished some reliable information in the past, and who is in a position to obtain the information furnished, advised on January 18, 1960, that he had been told by an individual in whom he has complete confidence, that the following changes have been made in the Cuban Consulate in Miami, Florida:

ANTONIO M. LAZCANO, former Consul General, has been recalled and will go to Veracruz, Mexico.

The former Consul at West Palm Beach, Florida, A. LEON BLANCO, has been transferred to the post of Consul General at Miami, Florida.

b7D*
With regard to the Consulate in New York City, New York, [REDACTED] advised that he had been told that all employees of the New York Consulate, with the exception of one individual, recently arrived, named (first name unknown) [REDACTED] who reportedly will be in charge of special investigations for the Cuban Government in this Consulate, were transferred or recalled back to Cuba. Informant said this [REDACTED] is not [REDACTED] of the New York Consulate. b7C

CUBAN POLITICAL ACTIVITIES

[REDACTED] said that he had been informed by a source which he considers reliable, that the Cuban Government had created five special offices tentatively called Special Consular Agents, and that three of the posts had been filled at the present time. The three posts were:

b2

1. The above-mentioned (first name unknown) [REDACTED] in New York City;
2. [REDACTED] in Miami, Florida.
3. An unknown individual in Mexico.

b7C

Informant stated that these individuals will reportedly each receive a salary of $9,600 a year, and an expense or drawing account of an additional $6,600. Informant stated these will be the highest paid Consular Agents in the entire service of Cuba, and that their ~~function~~ will be specifically to aid or operate, or oversee the intelligence activities of the Cuban Government in their respective areas.

[REDACTED] stated he was unable to ascertain whether or not these individuals will be technically under the command of the G-2 Section of the Cuban Government, but it is informant's understanding that they will be designated directly by [REDACTED] and will be responsible to him, even though holding minor consular posts.

b7C

They will reportedly travel under diplomatic passport.

CUBAN POLITICAL ACTIVITIES

[REDACTED] furnished the following additional information concerning a plan having to do with the establishment of a fifth column in the country of Nicaragua:

[REDACTED] advised that during the latter part of November, or early December, 1959, a Cuban by the name of [REDACTED] came to Miami from Cuba.

[REDACTED] is reportedly the father of [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] in the Cuban National Revolutionary Police. [REDACTED] is reportedly connected in some manner with the Cuban National Police and is described as:

Age	About 50 years
Height	About 5'5"
Weight	135
Skin	Dark, olive
Hair	Gray-black

[REDACTED] upon arrival in Miami, Florida, visited with [REDACTED] who owns a restaurant in Miami, and has the reputation of being very pro-CASTRO. [REDACTED] contacted an individual named [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] has the reputation of being anti-Communist, and worked for the former Cuban Governments of GRAU SAN MARTIN and CARLOS PRIO, seeking and expelling Communists who had infiltrated into the various labor organizations in Cuba.

[REDACTED] was arrested when the CASTRO regime took over and accused of some charge based on his activities during his previous years. After approximately five to seven months in prison, he was released and surveilled, but made his escape to the United States, where he presently resides in exile.

CUBAN POLITICAL ACTIVITIES

[REDACTED] reportedly made [REDACTED] the following proposition: b7C

[REDACTED] was to go to Nicaragua ostensibly as a friend of Nicaraguan leader SOMOZA, and to insinuate himself into the graces of SOMOZA. [REDACTED] believed that it would be possible for him to do this because of his anti-Communist reputation. b7C

When sufficiently convinced of [REDACTED] good intentions, SOMOZA was to be approached by [REDACTED] to allow or help form the establishment of a group of armed Cubans in Nicaragua who would again ostensibly serve the purpose of a possible future invasion force against Cuba, and as a means of defense should Cuba attack Nicaragua. b7C

When SOMOZA's agreement concerning this plan was received, [REDACTED] was to send word, by a yet unnamed method, to [REDACTED] or to a designated official in the Cuban Government, after which selected individuals from Cuba would go to Nicaragua where they would be presented to SOMOZA as definitely anti-Communist individuals who were opposed to the Government of CASTRO. b7C

In reality, each individual so selected and sent, would be hand-picked by [REDACTED] on the basis of his loyalty to CASTRO and his reputation as a Communist. b7C

At a time believed best suited for the aims of the Cuban Government, the above individuals, who would be ostensibly trained with arms and weapons for the assistance of Nicaragua, would rise and overthrow the Government of

CUBAN POLITICAL ACTIVITIES

Nicaragua, either alone or possibly timed to an invasion of Nicaragua from other forces.

[REDACTED] reportedly told [REDACTED] that he did not think that he was the man for the job and suggested that possibly a better known anti-Communist named [REDACTED] would suit his purposes, explaining that [REDACTED] need not be informed of the true purpose of the Cuban group, thereby making his performance more authentic. b7C

[REDACTED] stated that the plan was only in the discussion stage at the present time and it would be necessary for him to contact individuals in Cuba. b7C

[REDACTED] reportedly returned to Cuba during the latter part of December, 1959, and returned again to Miami on Friday, January 15, 1960. b7C

He reportedly again contacted [REDACTED] and informed him that he had discussed the plan with FIDEL CASTRO, Cuban Premier; with EFEGENIO AMELJEIRAS, Chief of Police, Cuban National Revolutionary Police, and with "CHE" GUEVARA, Argentine born reported Communist, who fought on the side of CASTRO during the revolution. They reportedly endorsed the plan and [REDACTED] was given $200 by [REDACTED] as payment for any expenses suffered in connection with the instigation of this plan. b7C

[REDACTED] reportedly had been appointed to a minor Consular position in the Consulate in Miami, Florida. b7C

[redacted] explained to [redacted] that the first step necessary prior to the actual inception of the plan would be the purchase of the necessary arms and their transportation to Nicaragua. b7C

[redacted] explained that he had no means to purchase arms and certainly no manner of transporting them to Nicaragua, upon which [redacted] stated that it was only the purchasing or securing of the arms that was difficult since "they" already had sufficient methods and means of shipping the arms to Nicaragua once they were secured. b7C

[redacted] stated that he did not know whether [redacted] had yet agreed to anything in connection with the above described plot, but understood that [redacted] had been contacted. b2/b7D
b7C

[redacted] stated that in his opinion, [redacted] is definitely anti-CASTRO and informant believed that [redacted] has a specific reason for "going along with" [redacted] on this plan. b2/b7D
b7C

Informant stated that [redacted] is between 35 and 40 years of age, about 5'9" in height, and 160 pounds in weight, with black hair and dark eyes, with a medium complexion. He wears glasses and at one time was a member of the old Authentic Party of former Cuban President CARLOS PRIO. b7C

FOREIGN POLITICAL MATTERS - CUBA

On February 17, 1960, a confidential informant, [REDACTED] advised Special Agents of the Federal Bureau of Investigation (SAs of the FBI) that he learned from [REDACTED] that Fidel Castro is now in the process of eliminating those people whom he considered at first to be loyal to the Cuban revolution who have now and in the past voiced opinions contradicting or disagreeing with Castro. [REDACTED] stated that Castro is a person who cannot tolerate criticism, either constructive or destructive. SCM

b7c/D

As examples of persons being relieved of their positions in the Cuban Government, [REDACTED] cited the cases of [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] both of whom disagreed with Castro concerning Cuba's economy program. The informant advised that [REDACTED] stated that [REDACTED] were of the opinion that Cuba's economy should be based upon free enterprise, whereas Castro believes it should be based upon state control of industry and agriculture. After subsequent verbal disagreements between [REDACTED]

b7c/D

Concerning the economy of Cuba, the informant learned [REDACTED] that Ernesto "Che" Guevara, present Director of the National Bank of Cuba, is a person who will never be accepted by the Cuban people, and will always be under suspicion by the Cuban people because "Che" is an Argentinian, an "outsider" in Cuba holding an important position in the Castro regime. >

However, the informant learned [REDACTED] that although "Che" is in bad health due to an asthma condition, he is a hard working, determined individual who knows his limitations due to his nationality and the limitations concerning the economy of Cuba due to his intelligence. For example, [REDACTED] stated that although "Che" would like to socialize the entire industry of Cuba, "Che" recognizes the fact that the present poor economy of Cuba could not possibly support Cuba's industry, and that for the present it would be better for the Cuban Government to actually lend money to certain industries to establish a more sound economy. b7c/D

The informant advised he learned [REDACTED] that it was [REDACTED] opinion that the biggest mistake that the leaders of the Cuban revolution made after the fall of the Batista regime, January 1, 1959, was not to declare a period of austerity in Cuba, since the country was actually bankrupt. This would have given the Castro regime a chance to view the economic situation of Cuba, and then to take proper steps to consolidate their position and initiate a program of rebuilding Cuba upon a solid economic foundation. b7c/D

The informant stated that [REDACTED] said that Cuba's reserve as of January 1, 1959, was approximately $77,000,000 with approximately $130,000,000 to $150,000,000 in credit extended by other countries, but as a result of Cuba's present economic program, its reserve as of January 1, 1960, is now in the neighborhood of approximately $48,000,000 and credits are slowly but surely declining also. [REDACTED] advised the informant that this program can only lead to complete economic chaos at the end of this year, unless drastic steps are taken by the Castro Government to remedy its program. b7c/D

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

FOREIGN POLITICAL MATTERS - CUBA

The informant advised that [REDACTED] made an interesting observation about Castro concerning Castro's desire to have the respect and admiration of the Cuban people in whatever he does. [REDACTED] said this obsession for admiration and importance has become so great with Castro that people in Cuba are saying that Castro is not actually interested in socializing Cuba, but "Fidelizing" Cuba. b7c/d

In conclusion, the informant learned from [REDACTED] that it was [REDACTED] opinion that the current foreign policy of the United States towards Cuba, that is, the "hands off" policy, is the most intelligent and logical approach that the United States could make at this time. b7c/d

[REDACTED] stated that it is the opinion of most of the Latin American countries that in the years past, the United States, in its foreign policy towards Latin American countries, adopted a formula within which a country's problems could be placed and the resulting answer would determine America's policy concerning that country. Much of this foreign policy was adopted without America realizing the economic and political needs of a particular country. [REDACTED] stated he was very happy to see that the United States has adopted a calm "hands off" attitude or policy towards Cuba. [REDACTED] stated he is confident that the Cuban people will work their problem out by themselves, and will never allow communism to take over their country. b7c/d

Castro's Gimmick

THE new Cuban offer to negotiate differences with our country really signals a step toward a return to reason, it should be half way. We begin this with an "if" because the proposal imposes a built-in, arrogant and unacceptable condition.

It is that we must agree in advance of negotiations not to alter the sugar quota under which we have been buying some 3,000,000 tons of Cuban sugar a year (about half the crop) at prices 20 or more above the world market rate.

What Castro is demanding, in other words, is that we observe the status quo and overlook the fact that he has violently changed it. He insists that we must passively accept the confiscation of American-owned properties and the recent sugar-barter deal with Soviet Russia with its open door to Communism.

He is saying: You play my way and I'll play my way and everything will be fine.

Castro ought to be informed that the formula for a conference is basically simple.

Conditions; no negotiations. No conditions; we'll talk.

Well H. god away with it - why can't Castro!

Re: Foreign Political Matters-Cuba

On February 24, 1960, [REDACTED] who is temporarily residing at [REDACTED]
[REDACTED] advised that members of his organization, Cuba Democratica, have advised him that the Cuban Government, under orders of Fidel Castro the Prime Minister, will soon take over complete control and ownership of additional companies now owned by United States corporations. b7C

[REDACTED] explained that Cuba Democratica is an Anti-Fidel Castro organization with headquarters in Miami, Florida. He advised that members of Cuba Democratica, working in the office of the Prime Minister of Cuba, are in telephonic contact with him and furnished the above information. He stated that these sources have stated that the Cuban Government will take over the Capree Hotel, the Havana Hilton Hotel, the Riviera Hotel, The King Ranch, and some oil companies. He stated that he does not know what Cuban law the government will invoke to take ownership of these companies, but believes the event will happen within the next ninety days although he has no definite information as to when it will happen. b7C

[REDACTED] went on to state that he personally believes that Fidel Castro, Prime Minister of Cuba, and his brother Raul Castro, Chief of Cuban Armed Forces, are Communists. He stated that he has nothing on which to base this other than his belief that the form of government instituted in Cuba since Fidel Castro took over is Communist. b7C

[REDACTED] advised that he first gained the opinion that the Castro brothers were Communists shortly after the Cuban Revolution in January, 1959. [REDACTED] attempted to interest Fidel Castro and several other government officials in a public relations plan which would dispel any belief that the government was in any way Communist. His efforts were to no avail since none of these people were interested in dispelling such ideas. He stated that he then began to think that these people might be Communist sympathizers. b7C

[REDACTED] While serving in this capacity he visited one [REDACTED] of the Cuban Air Force, and [REDACTED] showed him plans for the invasion of Panama by Cuban troops, [REDACTED] told him that the invasion plan was "Communist inspired". b7C

[REDACTED] stated that he later visited an Air Forces school which was held at "El Cortjo" in Havana. He stated that he monitored some of the b7C classes and found what he believed to be the rudiments of Communism being taught to the troops. He stated that he can not recall exactly what was said, but he recognized it as Communist philosophy and propaganda. He stated that this convinced him that the Castro Government is Communistic and because Fidel and Raul are "in charge" of the government, they must be Communist Party members. He stated that developments in Cuba almost daily convince him that he is right about the Communist situation. He advised that he did not know the Castro brothers prior to January, 1959, and knows nothing about their political activities prior to that time. He stated again that he bases his whole contention that these individuals are Communists on the above incidents and the Cuban situation today.

The Bureau's Code Room recently received information from the State Department that difficulty was being experienced with the State Department leased wire to Havana. It was indicated at that time that these were "technical difficulties." On 3-11-60, in checking with the State Department to ascertain the status of the leased wire, it developed that according to State there is no difficulty in transmitting messages from Washington to the main cable office in Havana, but that the difficulty is in the line between the main office in Havana and the Embassy. As a result, every time a cablegram is sent from Washington to the Embassy, it is necessary for someone from the Embassy to go to the main cable office to pick up the message.

The possibility exists that these "technical difficulties" on the line between the Embassy and the main cable office may more in the nature of political difficulties and that this is another step taken by the Cuban Government to harass the United States Government. No security problem exists as far as our office in Havana is concerned, however, since all of our cablegrams are encoded.
